by the Dy. Commr., provides for mud walls all round the garden; but the wall in front at the least should be of stone so as to give the garden a more presentable appearance. A fresh estimate amounting to Rs 1609/9/- has accordingly been prepared in the Office of the Mucrai Supt., in which provision has been made for constructing a stone wall with gate pillars in front and mud walls on the remaining sides.

2. The revised estimate for Rs 1609/9/-o is approved and sanctioned. As the temple of Sree Ranganatha Swamy in Sreerangapatana is an important institution and has at present no Surplus Funds at its credit, the Govt. are pleased to sanction the payment of the amount from the State Grant of Rs 5000/- sanctioned in Pro: No 259-68 d/5th Decr. 92 for the repairs of the Mucrai Institutions during the current year. The Comptroller to the Govt. of Mysore will accordingly be requested to place the sum of Rs 1609/9/- now sanctioned at the disposal of the DC Mysore Dt.

3. The Dy. Commr will issue instrn for the work being commenced at once and executed under the immediate supervision the Sub. Dn. Officer, French Rocks
